Special Media Release

Subject: Audit of the Shenandoah County Sheriff's Office's Equitable Sharing Program Activities

Date: June 10, 2015

Shenandoah County Sheriff Timothy C. Carter announces the results of a recent audit regarding the agency's participation in the United States Department of Justice (USDOJ) - Asset Forfeiture and Money Laundering Section Equitable Sharing Program.

The audit that was performed over a period of several weeks starting in February 2015 by auditors assigned to the Office of Inspector General in the USDOJ found no deficiencies and no recommendations.

The comprehensive audit examined records and purchases associated with the use of the shared funds.

A copy of the audit can be obtained on our website at www.shencosheriff.com or on the Office of Inspector General's website at oig.justice.gov.
